

What Members say about Membership

LeadingAge and 36 state partners provide indispensable tools, resources, and expertise—and offer members access to a network like no other. Dawn Quattlebaum, President & CEO of Seabury Resources for Aging, shares her top five member benefits below.

“Joining LeadingAge DC has been one of the best decisions of my career. The support, resources, and opportunities for growth have enhanced my professional development and the development of Seabury’s employees, enabling us to contribute meaningfully to the field of aging services.”

1 CONNECT WITH PEERS AND PARTNERS

The association provides a vibrant platform for connecting with fellow professionals, leaders, and experts in the aging services sector. Through conferences, workshops, and online forums, I have expanded my professional network, exchanged ideas, and built lasting relationships with like-minded individuals who share my passion for enhancing the lives of older adults.

2 AMPLIFY YOUR VOICE

Membership has empowered me to advocate for policies and practices that enhance the quality of life for older adults. The association’s advocacy efforts are robust and impactful, ensuring that our collective voice is heard on critical issues affecting aging services locally and nationwide.

3 STAY CURRENT ON CRITICAL ISSUES

Being a member means staying ahead of industry trends and innovations. The association keeps us informed about emerging technologies, regulatory changes, and innovative practices in senior care, which is crucial for delivering innovative solutions and improving outcomes for older adults. Staying updated with the latest trends, best practices, and research in aging services is essential for delivering high-quality services.

4 LEAD AND GROW WITH CONFIDENCE

Whether you’re a seasoned professional or just starting your career in aging services, the association offers opportunities for continuous learning and growth. The association offers access to a wealth of educational resources, including webinars, publications, and training programs that have enriched my knowledge and skills. From leadership development programs to certifications and credentialing opportunities, I have found support in advancing my career goals.

5 A COMMUNITY OF SHARED VALUES

Beyond professional benefits, membership has provided me with a sense of community and belonging. It’s reassuring to know that I’m part of a larger community of dedicated senior service professionals who are committed to making a difference in the lives of older adults and caregivers.

We’re helping you tackle today’s challenges and to think strategically about the future. Visit LeadingAgeDC.org or email LADC@leadingage.org for more information.

LeadingAge DC

Creating the Future of Aging Services

We position members to thrive in a rapidly changing field

LeadingAge DC is an inclusive network of mission-driven providers representing a diversity of high-quality services across the aging continuum of care. We are the only association providing advocacy and education tailored to the needs of nonprofit and mission-driven aging services providers.

Together with LeadingAge and 35 state partners, we provide indispensable tools, resources, and expertise— and offer members access to a network like no other. We're helping you tackle today's challenges and to think strategically about the future.

JOIN TODAY

WHAT WE DO

Advocate

We leverage our collective voice to advance policies that promote healthy aging and to address current and future challenges

Connect

We build connections and support strategic partnerships to make a bigger impact on our shared goals.

Inform

We provide timely information resources, policy updates, training opportunities and technical assistance to meet your needs.

 202 508 9462

 leadingagedc.org

 ladc@leadingage.org

THE TRUSTED VOICE FOR AGING